About Kemistry Gallery:

Kemistry Gallery is an independent design gallery dedicated to exhibiting the work of outstanding designers both past, present and upcoming. Kemistry Gallery is the only independent gallery doing so in the UK at the present time; it exists as a one-off, having built up a far-reaching and highly respected reputation for showcasing many talented designers and promoting design to a wider audience. We aim to make design accessible to an audience that might otherwise overlook or undervalue its importance next to disciplines such as fine art or photography. Kemistry Gallery strongly believes that good design in years to come will be both valued and valuable to the public and collectors alike.

The gallery has been responsible for giving first solo shows to now familiar names such as Parra, James Joyce, and Ben Eine, highlighting the talents of Daniel Eatock and Zak Kyes, as well as bringing over already established graphic design champions like Geoff McFetridge and Experimental Jetset.

Kemistry Gallery was founded in 2004 by Graham McCallum, Richard Churchill and Dan Witchell.
